Hello everyone,

My name is Yvonne Bekkers, 41 years, born and raised in the Netherlands and I work as a professional firefighter in my hometown 's-Hertogenbosch.

When I'm not working I'm busy with my other hobby's. Photography and the Rottweiler. I got involved with the breed when I was in high school studying to be a vet-assistant.

After school in 1996 I became a member of the Dutch Rottweiler Club and not long after that I got my first Rottweiler. (Nouska 1996 - 2000) With her I did several obedience courses and we did lots of shows. The results were overall "Very Good" and "Good", but I have learned so much from this female.

In 1999 I bought Grizzly-Beer (1999 – 2006). He was my buddy, a dog like this you only get once in your life! We did obedience, many shows (and he won several national and international titles) and we started to train IPO. This dog's character was just amazing, I still miss him every day. In 2005 I got Yuran (2005 – 2009), a nice friendly male but he had problems with his joints (elbow and hips) and I was not able to do much showing or training with him.

Then came Kenza, (2002 – 2004), let's just say that she was a troubled little girl from the day we picked her up. We had to put her down because of major behavior problems.

In 2008 I bought Enjoy, (2008 – 2017), we did many shows and trained IPO, we even did the German ZTP. She got injured during the protection work at the club and we had to retire the sport. In July of 2017 after being a beloved pet for several years I had to put her asleep..... Painful and I still miss her every day!

As you can see my Rottweiler did not reach a very old age I think that's why I have a soft spot for dogs in the veteran class, they just melt my heart and I can forgive them a lot.....

Next to showing and training with my own dogs, I also showed several dogs from other people. Something I enjoyed very much because it taught me a lot. I'm also a regular visitor (and sometimes competitor) at the German Klubsieger Zucht shows. In 2001 I did a course to become a ring-worker at dog shows. I was also a member of the board of the Dutch Rottweiler Club for almost 5 years, I had to stop this work because I switched careers and my training to become a firefighter was taking too much time to do the job as a breed-warren correctly. During the years, I also became a test-leader for the Dutch mental test (2004). Because the breed was almost banned in the Netherland due to several biting incidents we were obligated to do this test with our Rottweilers, if not you would not get a pedigree with your pups. I also was a dog trainer for several seasons at our local dog club, where I learned a lot about other breeds as well.

In 1999 I started the course Kynologic Knowledge part 1. I did this because it was given at the local dog club and it was a nice addition to my school education. At a dog show one of my show colleagues told me "you will never become a judge". I had no idea what he was talking about. A few months later it still was going to my head and I went on the internet to find out what it took to become a judge. The challenge for myself was set! I was going to see how far I would get. In 2003 I passed the second course, in 2007 I passed for part 3 and in 2008 I could take my breed exam for the Rottweiler. I passed and from that moment I was a Rottweiler judge.

It's now the beginning of 2018 and looking back I still cannot believe how lucky I was (am). I have been able to judge in: the Netherlands, Sweden, Belgium, Indonesia, Italy, South Africa, Ireland, England, Finland, America, France, IFR World show in Denmark, Spain, Australia, Mexico, Norway, Malaysia and China.

I'm enjoying every moment of my judging and I'm honored that I get the chance to go all over the world to learn about my beloved breed. Yes, it is a learning process, at every show I see new things, learn about other regulations, see different "trends" (some I like, but others I hate.....). Also, meeting new friends with the same passion for the breed is wonderful. And when I'm real lucky I even get the chance to see a little of the country I visit, that's a real bonus.

I hope to see you in or around the ring.
Yvonne
